Maiden Newton DT2

Dorchester Road, Maiden Newton DT2

This property forms part of the former village bakery, the original bakery had been part of Maiden Newtons history for many generations. In 2014 the building was sold at auction and purchased by a local developer - who has transformed the building into what you see today. A two bedroom cottage which is centered around a modern open plan kitchen/ sitting room with double doors that open onto a paved sun terrace overlooking the river Frome and adjoining countryside. On the first floor there are two bedrooms and a shower room - there are fine southerly views that can be enjoyed from the main bedroom.
